Horizon Occupational Health Solutions Acquires Action Industrial First Aid

– Acquisition further reinforces Horizon OHS as a leading Canadian occupational health provider –

MONTREAL, Nov. 10, 2016 /CNW/ – Horizon Occupational Health Solutions Inc. (“Horizon OHS”), a member of the Medisys Health Group Inc. (“Medisys Health Group”), is pleased to announce the acquisition of Action Industrial First Aid Limited, also known as Action Health and Safety Services (“Action”), a leading provider of professional first aid, safety and security services in northern British Columbia. Sandra Milne, Managing Director of Action, and Shelly Milne, Director of Sales and Operations, will continue to lead the strategy, day-to-day operations, and client services of the business.

“I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our valued clients who have supported Action throughout its long history. Our commitment to Dawson Creek and the surrounding areas has never been stronger, and I can assure you that you will continue to receive the high quality and responsive service you have come to know and expect,” said Sandra. “We are excited for this opportunity to partner with Horizon OHS and the potential it gives us to expand our services to our clients, invest in the growth of our business, and develop our valuable team members. We are thrilled that so much confidence has been placed in the Action team and we are looking forward to our future with Horizon and the Medisys Health Group.”

The acquisition of Action allows Horizon OHS to extend its national footprint into northern British Columbia. With almost 30 locations across the country, Horizon OHS and Medisys Health Group are the leaders in providing corporate and occupational health solutions for Canada’s leading companies. Action’s suite of services further solidifies Horizon OHS’ paramedic solutions while adding new services such as safety and security to their already robust occupational health offerings.

“Our objective is to always provide our customers with a full range of solutions to help ensure the health and safety of their most valuable resources – their employees. We work closely with our clients to develop programs that include everything from first responder services to annual health surveillance, and everything in between,” added Terry Power, CEO of Medisys Health Group. “This is why we look to partner with like-minded organizations that share similar values to ours and that can help enhance our current services through their expertise and leadership. We are very excited to welcome Action to our family and look forward to learning from the experience and knowledge of their team.”

The acquisition of Action continues Horizon OHS’ significant acquisition activity over the last twelve months, which included the acquisitions of Canadian Paramedical Services Inc. and Frontline Medics Inc.
